

Bahrain Technology Companies Society (BTECH) to create Business Process Outsourcing & Business Services Special Interest Group

24-July-2016

Bahrain Technology Companies Society (BTECH) has announced the setting up of a special interest group to cater for the growing Business Process Outsourcing & Services Industry in Bahrain. Inaugural members of this special interest are Ricardo Langwieder-Görner (CEO of Silah Gulf), who will act as Chairman and members Abbas Hussain (Managing Director of Digital Middle East) and S.M. Hussaini (General Manager of Almoayyed Computers), who are both on the BTECH Board.

“The mission of the BPO & Business Services Special Interest Group within BTECH is to give this key industry a platform, a voice and representation and help shape its eco-system in Bahrain. We are happy to have Ricardo join us as Chairman as he is a BPO and Services industry veteran with over 20 years of global experience and with Silah Gulf, he heads the largest BPO in Bahrain ” said Mr Ubaydli Ubaydli, Chairman of BTECH.

Mr Langwieder-Görner added “The BPO & Services industry in Bahrain and throughout the GCC is at a paradigm shift as it helps create employment and supports businesses to become more efficient, more flexible and manage overall costs. Bahrain is an ideal location for Business Process Management solutions within the region, with an educated multi-lingual workforce, reliable telecommunications and its business friendly environment. I am very excited to chair this group and look forward to it gathering pace and momentum.”

About BTECH

Realising the importance of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) on the economy, in 2012 Bahrain Technology Companies (BTECH) society was established. This is part of the country’s vision to improve its economic efficiency and the establishment of a sound foothold in the ICT sector regionally. Government interest in the ICT sector was reflected by fully supporting the establishment of BTECH, which aims in supporting the local ICT companies to excel. Being a non-profit entity, we strive in fully elevating the statuesque of the sector and bring the ICT companies in Bahrain to a competing level with its regional and international competitors.
